

A community event celebrating arts and shopping. The week after Thanksgiving, the 1st Light Festival launches the holiday season with a town-wide festival featuring free entertainment at more than 60 business locations. The goals of the 1st Light Festival are to entice shoppers to satisfy their shopping needs locally as well as to showcase the diverse talents of individuals and groups of all ages. Proceeds from the 1st Light Festival benefit arts programs in Brookline.

Click Here to visit last year's 1st Light webpage